LILOU: Hello my juicy co-creators! Lilou here. I'm in Amsterdam at the Ambassador Hotel and I am so, so, so grateful for this abundant journey. I have to tell you all about it because it's quite a story, everything just unfolded in a very surprising, beautiful way. And the more I'm learning to just detach and allow, the more beautiful things are coming on this journey. I was, as you have seen on many interviews in [??], in the Netherlands and then I came to Amsterdam. I was supposed to be hosted by someone here in Amsterdam and this person was not responding on Friday, so I was like, oh my God, okay, I have to book a hotel and of course the hotels are pretty expensive here but I knew a citizen which was really cool, trendy place, just a little bit outside of Amsterdam. I had to stay there, I was like, it's quite a lot of money. God, what should I do? But I need a place to work, upload and do my thing. So, I'll book those rooms and letting that go. And then I received yesterday an email from this person that was supposed to accommodate me in their, kind of the location where they do the retreat etc, and said, I would just love to donate to you the money that it costs you for the hotel because I'm sorry, we had a problem and I don't want to let you down and know that you're totally supported. So I was like blown away by this with the integrity of this message. Yesterday, I really want to thank Ivo that is the author of spirit and finance, it's not the book that is translated yet in English but I hope very soon. Wonderful, wonderful man that I met through [??] and he put me in touch with the owner of this beautiful hotel called the Ambassador Hotel in the Netherlands and it's in the heart of Amsterdam. It's so beautiful, as you can see, this is from my room, oh my God, I love it! This is the place where a lot of the famous authors like Emoto or Ekhardt Tolle or whatsoever have stayed at. They sign their books and they leave it in the library and tomorrow I just received a call from Patti Harpenaeu that is a famous Dutch author and we're gonna do the interview downstairs at the library, which is a place where a lot of famous interviews were conducted from. So it's really the heart of Amsterdam. Right here there's a little canal and bikes and, oh, I just love it, because the owner, I didn't even know, this is the most surprising, is that he's also the publisher of Jeff Foster and Rupert Spira that I've just interviewed and he didn't even do it for that, he didn't offer those 2 nights because of that. And I just decided, as you know, I interview those authors for free, because I want to interview them and I'm not really in touch with the publishers. Usually it's directly to the author and I do it from my heart and I upload those videos. I just wanted to
