LILOU: Hello my delicious co-creators! Lilou here one the Juicy Living Tour Europe today. You're probably recognizing my guest. It's Marie Diamond. Hello, Marie.

MARIE: Hello, Lilou. Wonderful to be here with you and all your viewers.

LILOU: In the juicy Monaco that you probably have heard of because there is a famous, very [??] here happening and all those beautiful yachts, it's a quite wealthy country, very small, tiny, dense, wealthy country.

MARIE: It is, yeah, and wonderful people here and a lot of very spiritual people, actually, very interesting to find that here.

LILOU: Yeah, very giving, generous, tying.

MARIE: Very tying and very huge charity, I would say, parties and moments and, you know, the wealthy people always know that they have to give back to the world, and very heartfelt people here. Very surprising when I came here first, yeah.

LILOU: You were featured in The Secret, you have probably seen The Secret, with the law of attraction, you were the feng shui expert.

MARIE: Yes, I was.

LILOU: Feng shui or feng shui?

MARIE: Well, whatever you want to say works for me. Feng shui means wind and water, it's really about the flow of energy. So, in The Secret, I actually brought forward the aspect of the environment, how environment actually affects the law of attraction. I remember when we had several questions and Rhonda Byrne, who was the producer of the movie, said, I was talking about the environment in the story about the man that looks kind of like, you know, woman kind of looks like this and say, 'I'm not interested in you.' I said, 'nobody's talking about this' I know it's part of the law of attraction, it's how your environment is actually affecting you because 95% of our subconscious is influencing us, but the environment is actually all the images, the colors, the way you position yourself is actually affecting your subconscious mind and she's just totally like 'wow, my God, you're going to be in this movie' and I said, 'of course, I'm going to be in this movie.' You know, I've been putting it on my vision board that I'm going to be in a movie, I will transform the world and it was my first ever TV interview, so it's really interesting and all became very wonderful friends.

LILOU: I see you reached millions through that.

MARIE: We reached, I think, you know, some people say more than 500 million people have seen it or perhaps have read the book, it has been translated into so many languages.

LILOU: Yeah, thanks to Oprah, as well, I remember I was in the audience that day when she aired the show. It was, you could feel something was happening.

MARIE: Yeah, it was definitely a major, major point and it was also interesting because Rhonda wanted to really be on Oprah, so she asked me to come in to her apartment and office to make sure that, you know, Oprah is the right face, the publisher had it's in the right place. I did the feng shui at that time for more than half of the people in Secret and everybody got their little things from me. I couldn't be part of it. I was stuck in Europe for some other things to work on. But, I definitely was supportive for some good feng shui tips that they would go on Oprah and it was an amazing success and it was actually time, I think it was time for the world to know this. What I like about Rhonda, she has a major vision, it's called, joy to billions. A lot of people are saying [??] great marketing and I have to tell you she had no idea how to work this. But she had a vision and so had all the teachers at the Secret. So, it was like a combination of 24 teachers that have the great vision and a great heart for the world. And I think it was like an ideal, perfect moment and I was happy to be attracting into it and supporting it with my work.

LILOU: It's true when we brainstorm or when get together, we regroup our forces and the intention, it multiplies, isn't it?

MARIE: It is an exponential energy, definitely. The people that were in The Secret or are still in the Secret, of course, were there forever, right?

LILOU: Yay.

MARIE: Yay. It's a classic now, isn't it? I call it the Casablanca of movie of the self [??] who were forever [??] but it still today, it's just so helping people. I still get so many emails from all over the world, people asking for me, email me on romance because I'm talking about romance.

LILOU: Or money, huh?

MARIE: No, romance is a thing. It always want me, I'm lonely, this relation didn't go well. But it's all about, you know, giving to the humanity and supporting them to have a better life whatever way we can help them with and everyone in the Secret is still very generous with their time and support for the humanity.

LILOU: It's going to romance, shall we? Because since you brought it up, I think it's an excellent thing to see how it works, how the law of attraction, just tell us how you see the law of attraction.

MARIE: Yeah. Well, how I bring forth law of attraction is that if [??] law of attraction, so the first one is your heavenly luck is your spiritual connection as is your connection with your soul and it's actually how your soul came on this planet and your soul came with already a law of attraction package. It came with the package of your parents, it came with the package of your community, your country, your race and culture. You have already some programs in there. We can actually change that part by meditating and praying and forgiving, you know, forgiving the ancestors and forgiving the leaders that perhaps have made some decisions in your country. You actually can let go of that and then you're not so much with that heavy, I would say, baggage on your shoulder.

LILOU: Burden.

MARIE: Burden, sometimes, yeah, for sure, in areas and certain countries. And the second part is what we call the human luck. Your human lock is actually your law of attraction of how you think, how you feel, and how you do things. And the self-help, for example, since Secret really focused on that part and say, wow, if we think this way, that feeling connections, that's great but it's according to the Chinese feng shui masters, it's only 33% and your soul connections also 33%, so it's still only 66% and let's be honest, we don't have a full 33% there because we don't always think right and we don't feel right and we don't always do right and we make mistakes. It's hard everyday to be focused. I learned first the spiritual part and I learned the human part. When I was 15, I actually started understanding about the physical part, the environment lock. I really was practicing law of attraction about 7 and I was meditating, I was praying. Oh my God, I was a role model as a teenager, you know. I was a good girl and being helpful and supportive for everyone. I had a major car accident. I was ran over by a truck and I had a dead experience.

LILOU: Tell us a little bit about that because lately I've done a couple of near death experiences.

MARIE: The near death experience was I went to the light, you know, to the tunnel and there was all beings of light and they said, 'it's not your time and you have to go back and you are here to reach more than 500 million people to enlighten them.' So I came back with that sentence. I had no idea what it actually meant at that time.

LILOU: You got it from there?

MARIE: Yeah, I got it from there.

LILOU: From here, there.

MARIE: The universe, right. Wherever that might be. So I came back and I was like, I'm 15, I'm in school, right? I had no idea how to do it. I had some major problems. I was very wounded and I have to have major concussion. I actually couldn't barely memorize things anymore. So suddenly from straight A student, I became actually a straight F student. So it was a big shock for me and then my spiritual teacher I already had since I was 7 said, 'it's time for you to meditate'.

LILOU: You had a spiritual teacher? So you were raised with a spiritual family, came from the family, how did that connection happen?

MARIE: That master appeared to me and came to me when I was 7, you know, when you're ready to master your fears.

LILOU: In physical form.

MARIE: And physical form, yes. When I was 15, he was already guiding me. Why did that happen? I've been a good girl, I've been thinking well, feeling well, being all the charity I could in the world. He said, 'oh, we have bad feng shui' and I was like, 'what does that mean? What is that word?' He said, 'you have the wrong room, wrong wallpaper, you're sleeping the wrong direction.' I hated that bedroom, to be honest. It was the bedroom of my sister, didn't like it, it must be something wrong with it. I tried to go to sleep as late as possible, wake up as early as possible and get out of that room. He said, 'you need to discolor, you need to have another room.' So I changed actually to the bedroom of my older brother that already moved out of the house. It was very interesting because I was a very lonely girl even I was just really a good role model, I was bully-desk school sometimes beaten up in school and suddenly the bullies became my friends and I had my first love. I did hang other images and painted it orange because I love orange and so suddenly I came out of this dark room into this wonderful sunny room. My whole life changed. I still had health problems and I still had problems in memorizing things but oh my God, I felt so much better. It was the first time I experienced how feng shui works if you change your environment, how my mindset changed and how my heart, feelings changed and how things just started shifting. From that day on, I have some basic principles I kept doing this and I now became a lawyer and I kept practicing all the information I had. At 30, I stopped being a lawyer and started becoming a spiritual teacher and I started teaching meditation I have been trained in since I was 7 and bringing feng shui to the world and understanding that if we connect with the heavenly luck and we connect with our soul and our light and the love that we have and supporting us with our environment, then our thoughts, feelings, and actions are supported both from heaven and from the earth and then your thoughts are much more easier to change and your feelings are much more loving and your actions are easier and more effortless. A lot of people aren't doing law of attraction and they're so hard here and so hard here and so hard in their actions, nothing is happening because they are not aligning heaven, human, and the earth energy. When that is aligned, then it's so much easier. So, I remember the [??], one of the major ones, and I can tell the story because he does the story, so he was in a time where things weren't going that easy, he was very successful [??], but, you know, things weren't going that easy for him business wise and so I came often and said, 'Jack, you work back to the door, this is wrong, this is wrong.'

LILOU: You're the one that told him.

MARIE: Yeah, yeah, yeah. He had to really do everything in his own, right? And I attracted him in and he attracted me in, probably. And thanks to him, I'm sure he's one of the reasons I'm in the Secret. But the wonderful thing was that he did all the things and I said, 'what you want to be?' and he said, 'I've been an actor, but I want to be a teacher.' So I redesigned everything to be a teacher and he said, 'I want to more globally [??]' So I put strategically globes out, you know, the globes, and he had to spin on it everyday to make the energy flow and after a year, his wife called me and said, 'can we stop spinning this globe? He's never home anymore. He's traveling now in the whole world.' And so, because his focus was globally instead of being in the USA more and so things just completely started shifting for him and he became the teacher, he got into the Secret, and he's one of the top teachers of the law of attraction, of course. So the same thing happened with Rhonda Byrne. Actually things were not going anywhere with the Secret and she was –

LILOU: Interesting, I thought it all clicked.

MARIE: No, no, no, no, no. And sometimes people call me the secret behind the Secret because –

LILOU: I love it. The secret behind the Secret.

MARIE: It's kind of my nickname. So I came to her apartment in LA where she was living and I said, 'Rhonda, nothing's gonna happen here, sleeping the wrong direction, your DVD is not out.' So, we redesigned and I redesigned also the publisher, actually they are officers, I redesigned so the flow was actually perfect for them. I said to her, 'the law of attraction cannot work if there's no law of attraction happening in your home, in your office.' Because how can you manifest into the world if the first layer where you need to manifest something is where you live, is where you work, where you sleep? It's the wrong thing. It's not aligned. How can things go beyond that?' and then I said to her, 'what do you really, really want people to do with law of attraction, with the Secret?' She said, 'I want them to share it with their friends.' I said, 'have you shared it with your friends?' She said, 'well, yeah. I want them to share with other people in the world.' I said, 'How do you share it with the other people?' We took out her DVD's and for a few weeks, we went out in LA and started giving the DVD's away. It's actually what has happened, perhaps you have done the same thing. You've got the Secret and you bought DVDs and you have books and you give it away. I've been hearing this over and over again. Align your environment because the secret would not have happened, the success without them aligning their soul. She was definitely connected to her soul and meditation prayer. She was definitely thinking the right way, feeling them, doing the right way. But her environment was not doing the right way, cannot feeling the right way and being the right way. And so as alignment happened, everything just started clicking in and several people in the Secret are also having aligning their offices and were in the same flow.

LILOU: And it happens the same way in relationships.

MARIE: It does. It totally does. The people do is they connect in with the law of attraction, personalized. So you have everyone this and probably have a number and you can actually, I can hopefully mention an app where they can actually go into the law attraction number in the iphone and you can actually figure out your birthday and what is your law of attraction for your success, your health, your relationship and wisdom. Your relationship, there's an aspect in your home, a direction, for example, west, I'm actually facing west right now, so it's perfect into what's yours, but –

LILOU: 7.

MARIE: Yours is 7 law of attraction.

LILOU: I don't know law of attraction but in numerology.

MARIE: We are in the 7th floor here. Isn't that great, yeah.

LILOU: I know, I saw that. And your room, too, 7-11, like, I'm liking this more and more. I love the number 11. Oh my God.

MARIE: Your birthday.

LILOU: Sure. The 20 of August 77.

MARIE: That's why you like 7.

LILOU: I'm a number 7, too.

MARIE: Okay, so your success reaction is actually southeast. So Monaco, that's a southeast of the said country. But it's your relationship is south for you. so, in your bedroom, you need to take a little compass and you can face, everybody is different, you have to look it up. You look at your, take a compass, from the center, look for it is in the south. The sole corner or the sold area of the wall and whatever is there is affecting you 24 hours a day on your relationship. So, if you have an image there of a woman alone or a little candle alone or books on loneliness, it actually tells us what you want. At night you're sleeping and that's what you're getting. So, in the south, you need to have some romantic images. But romantic means with 2, right? Not with 4 or 5. Unless you want that.

LILOU: I'm already in a couple so I'm not, I'm saying this for everybody. And also I guess even when we're in a relationship, we need to also optimize the bedroom.

MARIE: You work with your partner, you put that in that corner. 2 little candles, books on romance – you place it there. Colors that are very good for romance or rose, of course, reds are very good. So anything that gives that warm feeling, you put it there.

LILOU: Maybe that's why I painted one of the walls red.

MARIE: Oh, that could be. Perhaps it's in the south, you never know. You have that but also when people walk into their home, when you walk into your home, what is the first thing you're seeing? It's like coming from the outside universe and you come into a more personalized universe, personalized quantum field, what's the first thing you see? Is it a lonely woman? Or is it like a Buddha who is meditating. Buddha is wonderful, he's spiritual but he's not very romantic, right? So, he's not focused on that.

LILOU: Or it may be somewhere else in the house where you have his perfect energy for.

MARIE: It's called the wisdom direction, it's like where is the wisdom? He's a wisdom symbol. It could be on the success level if you want, you have a spiritual practice, you know it could be. But in relationship, you come in, they have all angels. Angels don't make love. They have no physical connection. I come in people's bedrooms and they have all these angels around and said, 'a lot happening here, isn't it?' and they're like, 'no', but loving or so tender, yeah, but nothing's happening.

LILOU: No action.

MARIE: No action here, right? It's one of these things that every symbol that you have around you is constantly influencing who you are. It's constantly influencing your subconscious mind. So I say to people, you walk through your home and just everywhere you see, it's all single images or single people.

LILOU: Wherever it is in the home I guess, anything that feels difficult or negative or change things around, move things around until it feels good. It's like, I remember I was walking into somebody's apartment and just before going in the bedroom was this image and it says 'victim'. I mean, it was like 'victim'. I'm like is that what you attract? Is that what you always want? There's another person, she was very Catholic and she had images of Jesus at the last hours, you know hanging on the cross just before she walked into her bedroom with the thorn crown above her head. And I said, 'I understand you love Jesus, but to be honest, I wouldn't put it in your bedroom.' And she said, 'it was interesting. A man walked in the staircase with me and the moment they come upstairs and saying yeah, let's just stay friends.' That has happened 5 times and I said to her, 'well, if you would just pass your bedroom you're like I better not go in, I don't know if I get a life out of there, right? Because you open the door and you see a man with a crown.'

LILOU: It has nothing to do with their own religious belief, it's just that it's the symbolic.

MARIE: I said there are other places where you would pray, for example, where you connect with Jesus. What is better connection. Not above your bedroom. She took that away and put it in the place where she was really doing her religious practice and she said I haven't had romance in 12 years and the last man that I had romance with just called me last week. We have again a date.

LILOU: This time we're going in the bedroom.

MARIE: I said, 'well, you see what happens.' And they actually become married. I said to her, 'well, I hope you did hang beautiful images instead.' She said, 'yeah, I looked for something.' It's a message. Your home is a 3 dimensional vision board. Think of it this way, people make these vision boards, right? Everything around you is a 3 dimensional vision board. So, if people –

LILOU: It has a vibration, it's a reminder.

MARIE: It's a reminder, it's like, somebody said, 'my business is not going well.' I looked around his office, I couldn't really find anything. I said, 'can you just put on your computer screen?' and his computer screen is a desert. An image of desert. Sunset and a desert. And I said, 'well, is that what you see every morning? You go to your computer – are you in the sand business or something?' He said, 'no, I'm not.' And I said, 'well, that's not a good image for you.' He said, 'I'm in the music industry.' And he had won many Emmy's, so before that he was really very successful and suddenly it dried up. I mean, it's a desert, right? I said, 'how long is this screen saver up?' He said, 'for 2 years.' I said, 'how has your business been in 2 years?' 'Dried up. It's like people say [??], the end of my career.' Because he understands it, the desert, right? So he changed it, put images of his emmy's, he created a little vision board in the screen saver and the year after, he won another Emmy. It was like, what are you reminding yourself all the time. It's not just here it happens, it happens all around you. so when you wake up in the morning, what's the first thing you see? when you open the door, what's the first thing you see? You come in your living room, what's the first thing you see? everybody sees that for you. Every visitor sees that for you. You see it all the time. People are coming out from the outside world, coming to the laundry, going to the garage and said queens and kings, wealthy people don't go to the laundry inside.

They open the front door, it's a beautiful place, beautiful flowers. Act like a king. Act like a queen in your life and don't come into chaos. Make it shiny, make it beautiful. Uplift it. There's small little things but you will feel uplifted and then your law of attraction will work better.

MARIE: It's a big component of it from my understanding is the receiving. It's beautiful to give to others but we have to be willing to receive all these beautiful things and give that to yourself within your own home. Your home is a receiving, it's a giving part and a receiving part. And so, I remember many years ago, I was in San Francisco and this beautiful couple, they were saying to me, 'this law of attraction doesn't work.' And I said, 'how is your apartment? Can I come and visit?' And they said, 'No, no, no, you can't come. There's no way to even pass through the hallway. There are boxes everywhere.' And I said, 'why don't you clear this out first?' So I said, 'I'm coming in a month and your home should be fine.' And they worked on it and in that month, they had both new jobs, you know, no experiences, no opportunities, and said, 'thank God you came to visit us.' Because the open space, they have to understand the universe can only come in and I say, it was like, we ask this request of this universe and we have this universal [??] airplane, that was dropped, it's little things, little gifts to us, but there's no space to receive, there's no space in your book cases, no space in your closet, no space in your bed, there's no space –

LILOU: Inside.

MARIE: Inside and you're, you know, it's like, what do you do? The [??] cannot drop the package for you. so, open up to energy and sometimes opening up the energy it's not just outside of you, it's also inside of you that you are holding on to so much old stuff and you're angry about the past and you're sad about the past. The power of forgiveness is a really important piece and if you have a hard time in doing that, I would say use the color violet. Violet is a color of forgiveness and just visualize that you have violet energy coming from your feet through your body like clockwise and just let it go, just let it go and if you have a hard time letting go, wear a little bit more violet and put some violet candles up light them and say 'I'm going to release a little bit of my pain today.' Because if you release some of the pains, some of the joy can come back in. A lot of people are just so in their personal trauma and I understand that can be really tough but you have to create space for joy and I know you're bringing this to people and so wonderful you're doing that.

LILOU: Yeah, I know, I'm all about, that's why the tour is called juicy living tour. Living a juicy, fun life, vibrant life, a life that is full of passion and purpose so certainly I'm seeing it everyday how wonderful the gifts are from the universe but I'm also seeing, maybe we can have this conversation on the goals and the intention and how those are important, too, because it feels like when we're in alignment with our heart and our beingness, things come to us even bigger than we can dream of and it feels sometimes that goals are really not necessary, tangible goals, or they can be, 'oh, I want to be happy and joyful and live an abundant life and empower people and millions of people everyday,' but this is not what, being more precise is not always useful, is it?

MARIE: Well, I have learned to look at the universe as, it is a mathematician. He likes numbers, universe or she, we don't know what it is, of course, he or she loves numbers. At the same time, the word 'all' is number, infinity is a number. When you do mathematics, this infinity symbol. So I would say, if you ask something, ask for all. But in certain cases, it's good to be a bit more tangible because all is sometimes too big to think about for people and saying, 'well, I want wealth.' But what is wealth? I want abundance. I want this kind of thing but I want happiness but it's not tangible to us and sometimes that tangible for us it's hard to get, you have to imagine, you're the universe, you're god within you, so if you cannot understand what you're saying, it's not tangible for you.

LILOU: You can't feel it.

MARIE: You cannot feel it and get around it. It's like, it's too big for you. so I say have a big goal but kind of put it in steps, too. It's like say, I want to be abundant but what is abundant right now for you? could be a thousand dollars more. Okay? Could be having a more beautiful home, could be having more friends, could be, what is it for you? make it more tangible. For example, what's in next 6 months or next 5 years or what's an end of your life? What would you like to accomplish? I have my accomplishing for a big goal but I always would say when you make a tangible goal, always put in beyond and more so you don't limit yourself. I put this tangible goal but, hey, I'm ready for more, too. I'm ready for beyond what I'm thinking I'm ready. So, open up to space as much, as much as you can in your goals and your goal as I say go-all, right? Go all the way and I remember when I was young, I wrote things down, I was 15 when I would make my first really expensive gold plan and you know, it sometimes takes years to meet because there's agenda that have to align. Your agenda, my agenda have to align to be together. We have similar goals probably, we want to reach a lot of people but perfect timings need to happen, too, and perfect place has to happen, too. And I believe that if you have that surrender also knowing that it will be in the right time and just each time then that invitation comes, don't say no to things that you think, 'wow, this is not according to my goal.' But a little first step can open the next door to that big goal. There's so many times that has happened that I was like, 'that doesn't really connect to the goal I want but hey, it comes to me, perhaps there's a reason for it.' And I went there or I met that person and that person 'oh, you're here.' That's the connection, right? That's what you need to do. That's how it works. It's just being continuing in the flow of actions coming to you and don't push things away even if they don't look like it's connected with your goal. It's like I remember somebody about romance, we did the feng shui and I asked her a few months later, 'how are things have been doing? You know with the romance.' She said, 'well, I only got invitations to very boring parties.' I said, 'how did you know they were boring?' 'well, these people that invited me, you know, I don't really like them.' I said, 'why didn't you go? Because it could be that that party brings you to a bigger party.' And she looked at me and said,

'hmm..' I said, 'what's the next invitation?' She said, 'well, it's my sister and she has been asking me so many times for barbecues, I just never want to go. It's my sister. Who can I have romance with that she knows?' I said to her, 'get in the flow.' So she went and there was a new friend of a friend that came along by coincidence that day, she got married with him. You just, if the door opens up, don't push it away. Get in the door, check it out, could be it leads to something much bigger, much more beautiful than you can imagine.

LILOU: Love love before and anything else, it's really loving yourself.

MARIE: Yeah. I think that's the major, major one. It's love. And I always say the word love and law, it's just the same thing. I'm a lawyer from background and I always say a lawyer should be a lover.

LILOU: That would be wonderful.

MARIE: Loving humanity, right? But I think it's the major law, it's loving yourself above loving others and always start with that intention and it's of course, it's always easy to love everyone but I always try to walk on this planet with a smile on my face and my eyes twinkling –

LILOU: And you mean it.

MARIE: And meaning it. Yes.

LILOU: And feel it. I mean, when we're in contact with you here, I could feel that you're authentic, you're in your heart, you're doing it, you're loving it, you're generous with your work. I mean, it's easy to detect and we have to detect people that are in similar vibrations because there's some tricks, too, but no, we have to feel it from the heart. It's a heart connection.

MARIE: It's a heart connection. But, also for the people that do not have the heart connection, that the heart has closed off because, you know, they were in dramas or in traumas and they have been rough times. It's very interesting. We all have been through rough times but we came on the other end out of it and so, be in love and be loving to the ones that cannot be in love with themselves because then something is a little seed that you plant them. It was also interesting because a few days ago, I was in [??] and I'm traveling and it was that this woman, she was very disturbed with her child was crying in the elevator. I put a smile and my eyes tinkling and I was like – and I feel she could not love her child right now, that moment, you know, and the child probably could feel it and she was frustrated and so I was like, okay, you cannot love your child right now for whatever reason, I'm not judging you but I'm loving your child right now and I sense such wonderful, loving vibration from the child and the child was like – and stopped right away and then I smiled –

LILOU: That feels good.

MARIE: And then the woman looked at me and said, 'it's okay. It's okay.' And she's like – and she could feel like, you know, and she was loving again to her child. So, it was like sometimes we have to share the love that others cannot feel at that moment and just put a little seed there, right there. The law of attraction cannot be a selfish law of attraction. I think one of the things I see sometimes law of attraction were all like, I want a money, I want a car, I want this – yeah, but it's an – Where is it? Now. My things. It's a love impact. I believe law of attraction is love impact. I always say to people, 'how many people do you want to impact with your purpose?' How many people – I've never thought about numbers and money in my life. I always thought about numbers in people to attract to attract, to connect with, to share my love. I think law of impact. And I think that's one of the things the Secret has become so successful because Rhonda Byrne that was behind the Secret and the teachers in the Secret had, they were not thinking of numbers in finances first, they were thinking in numbers of love. We just were doing an interview. We had no idea it was going to be big. We're doing an interview and because we love sharing our –

LILOU: Thank God because it might have been really, really nervous then.

MARIE: Oh my God. I was terrified. I had done 2 hours meditation before the actual interview. I was really nervous before. The thing is we just want to share and support people. The people in the world that are very, you know, the names that people know, their purpose is to help, their purpose is to help transform and they have big numbers of transformation in their head and their hearts because they know it's the only way how we're going to change the world. Perhaps you're saying, 'I know what you want.' Yeah. You know at least 10 people. Try to be loving to 10 people and the world will change.

LILOU: Or if you're baking cakes and you love making little cupcakes then you're gonna have a hundred people eating those cakes everyday.

MARIE: The focus is really on the impact you're going to make in the world.

LILOU: So it's even beyond the eating. They're gonna be so rejuvenated and filled with love out of eating those little cupcakes.

MARIE: Yeah, they will be energized. They will be loved.

LILOU: Talk to their friends about.

MARIE: Yeah. It's like go for the impact that you're making. Don't go for what you received. Impact that is the giving and then you'll receive the impact back.

LILOU: Because then you have the whole creative level, then you're like, well, then I'll go and bring 10 cupcakes to the hospital of kids with cancer or I will, it's a whole other conversation.

MARIE: It's a whole other conversation. Like connected with you, the whole thing is oh, I can impact so many million people. I connect with Lilou and give them perhaps a little inside or little moving forward in their lives. And so I'm glad I've given my time for that. Why not? Because that's what we do. We have that constant passion for sharing a message that perhaps can help and uplift people.

LILOU: And again you trust because you visualize or see 500 million plus people that you're impacting that you know that whoever you're gonna encounter or you're checking inside also, I guess, but when there is an alignment with that or even whoever you meet then becomes part of that.

MARIE: Yes. Everyone that you fortunately meet, yeah, or everyone that you physically meet that you're seeing like this morning, I was in the hotel eating breakfast and there was this woman and a man and I could see they are in love but, you know, the difficulties with each other and a little conflict there going on in the breakfast table and I was just, you know, I was like, just sending her some love and she turned around and she looked at me and she smiled and she was like and I smiled, I was like it's okay. It was like – and the man was just you know. But I could feel she kind of got my light already, my love already. Now, I don't know her name, you don't have to know her name. You just know at that moment, you made little difference perhaps one second and one second is enough. If people one second make a good choice or perhaps the rest of the life will be better and I think that's the major focus we need to have. It's actually practice to walk the earth and to have always light smile on your face and to have a twinkling in your eyes. And of course there are moment that's a little bit harder, right? And then you just sit down and pray and meditate and you say get back into my alignment and move forward again.

LILOU: And what's beautiful is that you start to see it everywhere. You see, even the flower or the wind or it could be anything that reminds you of this magic and it raises your vibration automatically. Those are, it can become an automatic thing.

MARIE: It is an automatic thing.

LILOU: Part of us, too, of course.

MARIE: Yeah. But, it comes in automatic experience. But I'm not saying after week, don't say after week, it has to be happening. At least try, if you have a fall back, you go back and fall back and go back until you kind of become it and be it more and more and then you see people. You attract people and you're like how will this people come to you? Well, because your vibration has been on a certain level and you have been maintaining it. And then people just show up and it happened magically in my life ever since I started deciding. This is what I'm here for.

LILOU: Very inspiring.

MARIE: Yeah. It's lovely.

LILOU: Thank you. thank you, thank you so much for this inspiration, for your joy and all you brought to this beautiful global conversation, transforming people all around the world. You're part of the TLC.

MARIE: Yes, I'm part of the Transformation Leadership Council, I'm also presiding the European Chapter. It's wonderful to see so many transformation happening in the business world, majorly right now in the entertainment industry and the [??] industry and the self-help. It's all around. I think there's a deep buzz word right now is transformation.

LILOU: It's happening.

MARIE: It is totally happening. I'm just so excited for this time. This was a time to be, not like 200 years ago. this is the time to be, right now.

LILOU: You have books. Let's tell everybody watching right now the name of your books. I think one is coming out, has come out or –

MARIE: There's one coming out called The Transformation Principles. It's like what are the transformation principles you need to have to transform your life is one of them. And they kind of, of course, go to mariediamond.com and on the website, there are home study courses and virtual programs and my own radio and tv show.

LILOU: Successful radio show.

MARIE: Yeah. The Law of Attraction radio network. It's a major thing is finding the balance between the giving and the receiving part and you want more about diamond feng shui and the inner diamond meditation. It's all there. And actually they can always sign up for transformation messages and so they get wonderful, wonderful little quotes everyday to connect with who they are.

LILOU: Thank you, Marie. Thank you so much. Thank you my beautiful co-creators for watching the juicy living tour unfold. I know it's exciting. We have so many good guests. I'm so thrilled the universe is sending them. I'm just receiving. We're here and sending you much love. Thank you for sharing them on your facebook, everywhere. Bye!
